DISCOVER SOUTH AMERICA

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to stand next to the Christ the Redeemer statue overlooking Rio de Janeiro harbor, stroll the beach of Ipanema at sunset or walk the route of the Carnival parade? What about the prospect of visiting an Argentine estancia and seeing first hand the life of a gaucho? Does a tango lesson sound intriguing? You will have the opportunity to do all this plus much more on the Discover South America trip sponsored by the Business Administration Department and the Weekend College. The trip will be March 17 to 29, 2008. A unique feature of the trip will be that it is taking place over Easter Week. Semana Santa is a very special time in Latin culture, and we will have an opportunity to be part of these very unique celebrations. The trip is open to all students, faculty, staff, alums, family and friends. Academic credit is available for undergraduate and graduate students.

For more information and an electronic brochure email kwhitman@msmc.la.edu. There will be an information session on Sunday, September 23rd, at 6:00PM. Email Katherine Whitman for more details.

Take Back the Night February 20, 2008

Speak out against violence!

You might be thinking "What is Take Back the Night?"... TBTN is an opportunity for women and men to protest violence; such as rape, sexual violence, domestic violence, and child abuse. Some say it started as early as 1877 in London where women protested the violence and fear they experienced in the streets at night. Others believe the first rally was in 1976 in Belgium where women lit candles and walked the streets protesting violence against women. Today TBTN continues to be an international event with rallies throughout the US and Europe.

TBTN at the Mount includes an empowerment march and a speak-out where survivors of violence can tell their stories.

The event will start at 5:30 in the Chapel at the Doheny Campus. Come be a part of this incredible experience.

"Love is a journey, not a destination."

Are you currently considering a relationship, initiating a relationship, in a long term relationship, or getting out of a relationship???

Falling in love can be bliss but arguments and disagreements are inevitable, not only in romantic relationship but in any relationship. Don't let arguments and disagreements rule your relationship. Next time you feel like you are going to "lose it" with your partner, best friend, roommate, sibling or any other significant person in your life, stop and breathe. Think before you fight over something minimal. Take a moment to relax and collect your thoughts. By the time you return to talk things out, you will both be calmer and level headed.

If you need more help dealing with relationship issues, call CPS at Ext. 2668 to make an appointment with a counselor.

A Message from the Dean's Office

Dear Students,

We encourage you to continue to work and study hard during this mid semester time. These exams can bring out the best in you if you really apply yourself to the study and take advantage of all the helps provided for you: visiting your instructors at their office, the tutors at the Learning Center, the library, the study places. There are many people here who want to help you.

Then enjoy the Spring Break taking a much needed rest and returning refreshed. During the Spring Break take time at your Church to join in Holy Week services.

May you and your family enjoy the blessings of the Risen Christ on Easter Sunday and throughout the Easter season.

Sincerely,

Jeanette Stone, Karol Dean and Sister Carol Brong

You are invited to submit your thoughts and observations about Beauty in our environment. Where have you seen it in the people, programs, rituals, behaviors, buildings and surroundings of the Mount? I will be documenting the progress we have made on Goal 2 of the MSMC Strategic Plan during its first year and a half of implementation.

Goal 2 states:

The College will cultivate beauty within ourselves, the Mount St. Mary's community, and the greater society.
Guiding Strategies for Goal 2

- ☛ NURTURE BEAUTY THROUGH silence, observation, and reflection.
- ☛ EXPLORE and integrate the physical, aesthetic, and spiritual dimensions of beauty.
- ☛ TEACH AND PRACTICE environmental responsibility.
- ☛ Showcase beauty through the intellectual, spiritual, and social life of the Mount St. Mary's community.

Please send me examples of Beauty you have observed this past year and in the months to come. Send flyers, e-mails, texts, documents, thoughts, anything that you believe will capture our work on this Goal and its Strategies.

What should proper nail care involve?

The best way to keep your nails healthy is to keep them clean and trim frequently (especially toe nails) straight across to avoid getting ingrown nails. Avoid leaving nail polish on for prolonged periods. Remove polish when they are beginning to get chipped.

If the nails get too long, they can cause a number of other problems from being torn to being completely lifted off because the nail catches on something.

Don't push the cuticle back all the time. The cuticle is actually a nice barrier that keeps infection from coming into the nail.

You might need to slide it back a little bit, but you have to be careful about pushing it too hard.

Nail polish does strengthen the nails a bit and doesn't seem to create problems. But if you put on too much, it will stain your nails. And nail polish covers up your ability to see your nails and see if they're healthy. Nail polish remover may dry the nails.

Leaving friends! Returning Home! Summer job! Summer School! Etc.! Etc.!

"Enough is enough," you say. When things pile up, don't let your body and mind become overwhelmed. Instead, make a special effort to take care of yourself by getting enough sleep and eating healthy foods. Take exercise breaks in the sunshine or call a friend who makes you laugh. It never hurts to take a deep breath and say a prayer. You can better deal with the stress better if you are functioning at your best.

Next week is our last week to see clients; our office will be closed for the summer. We have enjoyed serving you during this year, and we wish you a fun and relaxing summer. If you desire counseling during the summer, we can suggest referrals. Just call our office at ext. 2668, or come by McIntyre for a list of providers (a handout with a list of providers is in a folder on the bulletin board inside our office). Thank you, the CPS Staff.
